

CPSC BICYCLE HELMET SAFETY GUIDELINES

Consumer Product Safety Commission - Standards 1203

- A helmet must meet safety standards to protect against head injuries.
- Replace any helmet that has been involved in a crash, even if no damage is visible.
- Fit guide: Helmet should sit low on the forehead, two fingers above the eyebrows.